General Instructions for 2009 ORCO Membership

- The Membership package is to be given to the applicant, who must be 21 years of age, by your Sponsor (ORCO member in good standing).
- You must be a member of the NRA in good standing.
- The Membership package consists of the one page application. Your sponsor will review the indoor and outdoor club rules with you. You will receive your copy of the rules and By-laws when you attend your safety orientation.
- The application must be filled out in full and signed. In addition to the sponsor, at least four other members must recommend the applicant, and sign the application.
- The completed application is to be returned to ORCO, at the letterhead address. The dues and initiation fees are payable upon completion of the safety orientation. If there are no openings for membership, the application will be put on hold until the next opening becomes available. Initial dues and fees may be prorated on a quarterly basis. Prorating must be reviewed and approved by the Membership Chairman.
- The applicant must attend at least three meetings, work parties, or other club functions.
- The applicant must attend a Safety Orientation given by the Executive Officer. This can be done by appointment, or at one the scheduled orientations.
- This form is not valid after 12-31-2009.
